

Customized and Corporate Training

Warren County Community College is the leading customized business training and professional development service provider for our region's businesses, industry, government, and nonprofit organizations.

Warren conducts thousands of workforce training hours and trains hundreds of employees annually. We partner with local, regional, and state organizations to utilize training grants, help employers stay competitive, and foster the corporate culture they aspire to.

Request a proposal today.

Grant Funded Training

Department of Labor/Workforce Development Board/NJCCC

Your company may be eligible for training with funding from the Department of Labor and your local Workforce Development Board (WDB). Warren County Community College will assist you in participating in grant opportunities. Classes can be conducted at your site or one of the College's two locations.

Technology

- Windows, MS Office, MS Word Excel, PowerPoint, and Outlook
- Databases, PC Data Storage, and Cloud Computing

Business

- Verbal, Written, and Customer Service Communications
- Measurements and Mathematics
- Professionalism
- Problem-Solving and Critical Thinking
- Team Building and Team Leadership
- Time Management
- Supervisory/Management Skills

Language

- English as a Second Lanugage
- Spanish for Managers
- Spanish in the Workplace